We're setting the table for a perfect event at Renee's Gourmet Catering, Inc. serving the Metro East and St. Louis communities and located at 1278 Vandalia (159) in Collinsville, Illinois. Renee Robertson, owner and executive chef, is a lifelong resident of southwestern Illinois, blending a unique understanding of time-proven local events and cuisine with the diversity of her background and experience in the culinary field. With multiple degrees and majors from two universities, her training in both commerce and academia encompasses the fields of business, marketing, hospitality services, and the culinary arts.

Renee and her professional staff offer decades of experience in the culinary field, actually more than we'd readily admit. It's not that we're not proud of the work we've done...we most definitely are...but because it makes us sound really, really old...and we definitely are not.
We've gathered some interesting years of experience on an individual basis, and when you add us all together the math turns out to be fairly big numbers. Oh, okay—collectively we share about 60+ years of enhanced and diversified backgrounds in the culinary discipline, having worked and trained with myriad talents, and a few real characters, both locally and nationwide. From the deep South to both the East and West Coasts and back home again to the Midwest, hometown and ethnic favorites were embellished, creativity was inspired, and Renee's menus became midwesternly cosmopolitan with an occasional continental twist. She describes herself as a middle-of-the-road gourmet, but her customers will happily tell you that she logs some miles in the fast lane too. The company has continually responded to the area's demographics, expanding the range and focus of corporate and residential catering and custom-designed menus. We're foodies at heart...we get excited about new recipes, layering flavors and textures, and how Renee's custom spice blends throw a party for your taste buds...we've cooked for celebrities, received honors and awards, and you just never know what we'll be cooking up next.
